

CANAL POINT

Wilton, who attended Canal Point and Pahokee schools and who enlisted in the navy several months ago, is now stationed on the United States ship "Albatross" at San Diego, Cal. This ship carries the flag of the aircraft scouting force and my division furnished quite a number of working parties so we never know when we will be called upon for old jobs," he writes to a friend in Canal Point. "The Wright is a large ship and quarters are not crowded and she serves fine meals. Only trouble is, she stays tied up at the dock ten months of the year." And Wilton ends his letter with this: "Oh, yes, there are no malaria around here."

Dr. G. B. Sartoria, pathologist of the office of sugar plant investigation, U. S. Department of Agriculture, is spending the week in Canal Point, having come down from Washington to check up on the work at the cane breeding station in the north part of the county. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poland of West Palm Beach called in Canal Point and Pahokee this week. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. T. M. Gilbert, of Belle Glade, La. Mr. Gilbert, formerly chemist at Canal Point for the sugar company, will join his wife here as soon as he finishes the harvest and grinding of the cane crop, which is expected to be about Christmas.

CANAL POINT SCOUTS

The Canal Point Boy Scouts held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Scout hall. At the meeting was called to order, followed by the roll call and the reading of the minutes of the last meeting. Mr. Cox discussed "How Scouts Behave In Emergency." After the discussion of some business topics the meeting was closed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The following Scouts were present: R. N. Upthegrove, Junior Scoutmaster, Joseph Everett, Francis Cross, Junior Patrol, Richard Watkins, Ben Bardin, W. C. Neaves, Lester and Kyle Hland.

CANAL POINT WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. W. G. Todd was hostess to the Canal Point Woman's Club at the bi-monthly meeting held at the home of Mrs. Jack Harris on Wednesday afternoon, December 12. Mrs. W. P. Fernigan, president, presided. The club voted to join the Florida Forestry Association, so as to get protection from muck fires. The welfare committee will have charge of the Christmas baskets that the club will give away to needy families. All club members that can donate groceries, vegetables or any articles of food are asked to leave the donations at the U. S. C. O'Brien hardware store not later than Friday, December 23.

Mrs. Todd, assisted by Mrs. Barrett, served a delicious salad with hot tea to Mesdames M. F. George, T. T. Gibbons, A. H. Hamrick, J. S. Harrington, A. G. Howell, W. P. Fernigan, G. L. Sims, H. L. Speer, G. H. Tucker and Daisy Young.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Tucker, Monday afternoon, December 26. All members are urged to be present as a special program has been arranged.

CALLERS

Captain L. G. Lewis of Miami, representing the City-Clayton Lines, called in Belle Glade the first of the week. He had attended the Kiwanis barbecue at Lake Harbor on Sunday, and was looking up his schedule of trips Monday he called on Dr. W. J. Buck and at the newspaper office.

H. G. Gates of Moore Haven, who represents a group of non-residents who have large acreage in Glades county, was a caller at this office Tuesday. He came into the Lake region in 1915—that is 17 years ago, when James A. Moore and Clarence M. Busch opened up the ups and downs he's as firm a believer in the country as he ever was, confident that many more settlers will come in when the rail system is completed.

COMMUNITY GOSSIP

In putting up a building for a blacksmith shop at a location south of the school in Belle Glade, L. C. Komar has used a device that he thought was original and that he was laying out on the top of the piling and then carrying the frame up, he used long poles, making the piling work as a crane and letting the tall poles stand upright to support the framework of the building, including the roof. Everything is thus tied together to resist wind or water separately or in conjunction.

The idea was original to Mr. Komar but it isn't original in general. Several years ago, when the Florida Power & Light Company was erecting poles to carry its power lines, a pole was set at the corner of the Everglades News lot, the top of the pole raised as high as the second story of the adjacent building. This suggested to the idea—why not set a line of poles to rock and then mortise rafters into them. Architects and builders were consulted and their opinion asked, and all of them commended the idea as being impracticable, immaterial, irrelevant and so forth. And now Mr. Komar has done it, not knowing that the idea was already used. It was not the right thing to do. More power to him!

Mr. and Mrs. Komar are going to build a dwelling house near the new blacksmith shop after a while, and they are to show the course and intelligence by building the house up off of the ground so air can circulate under it and cool the floor so the hot air can come up, and they will have ventilators in the top so the hot air can get out. By examples like these we'll make a country out of this more pleasant to live in.

MORE SHACKS ON LAKE

Squatters are continuing to establish themselves on land along Conners highway between Chancy Bay and Taylor creek. New shacks are being built in the groves along the ridge.

ACTIVITY ABOUT RAILROAD DEPOT

Cooperation between the several interested parties is resulting in important and permanent improvements and extensions around the Florida East Coast railroad's station at Belle Glade. Mayor George E. Teller and Roscoe Lee Braddock met with a representative of the railroad Wednesday forenoon at the station to lay out the line on which a loading track, one of several, move room, preliminary to, the docking and unloading of the roadways on both sides of that track. This loading track, one of several, to be straightened and made parallel with the track at the Hector Supply Company's warehouse. Mr. Braddock owns the land that joins the railroad right of way.

By moving the loading track and straightening it, a bad junction with the driveway is made more safe for traffic. The track is being put in place, the area is in condition for paving.

Just beyond the Sinclair Refining Company station, near the Hector property, N. D. Stirling, real estate broker, is having an open shed built for the purpose of being used on a sidetrack, and its construction is being supervised by J. H. Cook, who says he will have it ready for use the latter part of next week.

NEWS FROM THE GRADES

WE are busy starting our decorating for Christmas. This week we made point in erecting a holiday washing plant 40x100, and Luther Jones has a platform from which he will speak to the muckers and mail order buyers.

Around The Lake

Cleveland school's Christmas exercises will be on Friday, December 23. The holiday extends to January 2.

Bill Reese, negro porter, confessed it was he who took a Graham-Palge car, property of the sugar company, and drove it off the lot at the Clewiston Inn. While Bill was driving the car he lost control and let it go into a road canal, where it was found completely submerged when searchers looked for it.

Members of the Okeechobee city council in the term beginning the first week in January will be: Mayor, D. B. McCarty, Victor Damer, J. H. Walker, Sr. and A. W. Brass, all of whom received upward of 200 votes. Wardlaw leading with 224. The vote of defeated candidates ranged: Albert Brier 119, J. J. Hendry 90, Irving Goldberg 80, J. L. Mincham 40.

FARMER'S IMPROVEMENT

Alton Byrd, a successful young farmer of South Bay, has laid the foundation for a dwelling house 20x24 feet on a lot in the main residence section of South Bay. Porches will give the house a larger size than the main foundation. On his farm near South Bay Perry Register is building a two-car garage, need for which he has because of the purchase of a large truck.

SCHOOL WATER SUPPLY

SOUTH BAY, Dec. 10.—The pipeline connecting the school plumbing with the canal is being laid and will be finished this week. When laid it will be connected with the electric pressure pump and will carry the canal water into the toilet and wash rooms of the school.

The water system at the South Bay school has heretofore been very unsatisfactory, as the minerals from the well water corroded the plumbing fixtures and required constant service to keep them working.

HIT BY CAR

SOUTH BAY, Dec. 10.—Mrs. R. C. Beaver had a narrow escape from serious injury Thursday when struck accidentally by a car driven by Mrs. Frank Howard of Belle Glade on the highway through the center of town. Mrs. Beaver was hurried into the ditch. She was able to get up and proceed on her way as not thought to be injured seriously. Mrs. Howard stated that she did not see Mrs. Beaver until almost upon her and immediately applied the brakes, or the accident would very likely have been much more serious.

GARDEN CLUB

The Belle Glade Garden Club met at the Community club house Thursday afternoon. Miss Alice Reed, president, in charge. Plans for the flower show next spring were discussed, and further plans for beautifying the club grounds were made. Attending were Mrs. S. G. Parker, Mrs. J. H. Chambers, Mrs. J. L. Freeland, Mrs. G. A. Hubbard, Mrs. C. E. Fiedel and Miss Alice Reed.

A spur track of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad at Moore Haven is being lengthened. Built to hold one car of fuel oil or coal, it is being made of length to hold three cars because a contractor on lever work uses a car a day.

CANAL POINT SCHOOL

Santa Claus is just around the corner now. He is coming—just week. He is due to arrive at the Canal Point school next Wednesday night, with lots of toys and good news for the school kiddies. Santa gives us a little surprise news that may be of interest to the children, and that is that every Canal Point school child is to receive a present at the Christmas tree next Wednesday night.

The committees working under the general chairman, Mrs. Tucker, are very busy this week getting orders in to Santa so they will be all in order for the kiddies. The purchasing committee, headed by Mrs. Rodgers, asks all those who can assist to give hearty wherever possible, so as to make it possible for the committee to get an ample supply of presents.

The second six weeks tests were given last week and report cards went out on Wednesday afternoon. Many of the pupils were proud of their cards, because they had made some good marks. Some, however, seemed not to be so proud, as they had not done so well.

NEWS FROM THE GRADES

WE are busy starting our decorating for Christmas. This week we made point in erecting a holiday washing plant 40x100, and Luther Jones has a platform from which he will speak to the muckers and mail order buyers.

THIRD GRADE

WE are writing Christmas stories this week. The best ones are to be displayed in our room.

FOURTH GRADE

Carolyn Jane Hudson, Reporter. We had many tests last Thursday and Friday. We are studying fractions in our arithmetic.

We appreciate the books that the Everglades Library has loaned us. We find them to be very interesting.

SEVENTH GRADE

Annie Mae Holden, Reporter. We have completed our six weeks tests, and are receiving our report cards for this week. We hope that all the children were satisfied with their reports.

Our class has charge of the chapel program for this Friday afternoon. The boys are presenting a play called "The Boys' Club." We had many tests last Thursday and Friday. We are studying fractions in our arithmetic.

WE are now decorating our room for the Christmas holidays.

The girls won in the demerit contest, therefore the boys must give them a treat, which we are looking forward to.

EIGHTH GRADE

Blanche Sears, Reporter. The eighth grade had their regular class meeting Monday morning, at which time the following officers were elected: Wilbur Gilbert, president; J. W. Adams, vice-president; Barbara Bellies, secretary; Barbara Bellies, secretary; Blanche Sears; Sadie Wilson, health officer.

We have been busy with our six weeks test, and we feel like most of us have made good.

We are all glad to have Mrs. Goughly back with us, though we were glad to have Mrs. Cox acting as substitute.

We are planning on a big Christmas, as we get out next Thursday for the Christmas holidays.

Wide Variation In Content of Oil In Florida Avocados

Production of avocados in Florida should be increased to at least 6,000,000 pounds a year in order to put the industry on a footing to ask a tariff, says Paul M. Hosenbly, general manager of the Mayaca Corporation at Fort Myers.

When an inquiry was made about the effect of the California law that fixes a minimum of oil to avocadoes shipped from that state, in his letter Mr. Hosenbly says: "We have never had any tests made on avocados from Port Mayaca for oil content. However, there have been rather extensive experiments made along this line during the past two years by the state on varieties from different sections. This shows that the West Indian varieties will show as little as three per cent oil when mature and the Guatemalans will run as high as 22 per cent. On account of this wide difference it is impractical to have a set law requiring a minimum oil content such as is in effect in California. Any law with the minimum set high enough to keep out Cuban fruit would also prohibit the marketing of a large quantity of bodied and seedling West Indians in Florida. The California law was passed in 1925 to prevent the marketing of grossly immature fruit and if this law also prevented and further shipments from Florida, probably no one else would sleep over it. Furthermore, it would be of very little advantage to the Florida grower to keep out Cuban fruit from Florida if it were permitted free entry in every other state.

"The proper course to pursue is for Florida to increase her production to at least 5,000,000 pounds and if we are unable, with our practically lower production costs, to compete with California it is our own fault. Cuba is only a factor during the summer and early fall, but during this period absolutely wrecks the market. With Cuba paying the same tariff all other countries have to pay, Florida would be in a position to make her avocado industry of great importance. The greater the production of avocados in Florida, the better the chance to have the present tariff apply to Cuba also."

Two Are Hitch-Hiking Across Sahara Desert

Paris.—Two young Londoners have made their way half the distance across the Sahara in the desert's first hitch-hikers, walking and eating rides on camel caravans. William Beaulieu and Norman Evans were reported recently to be near Fort Flatters in the edge of the Hoggar, a region inhabited by the tribes of desert tribes. From Fort Flatters they went to Fort Polignac, then across the Hoggar to Tamarassout and on to Kano in the Niger colony.

FIRST CHRISTMAS PARTY IN 1914 WAS ON ISLAND

The H. A. Braddock family celebrated the Christmas of 1914 on Torry Island, and there are few remaining in the Belle Glade district who were here as early as that. This is a reminder of how recent is the development of this territory. It was two years before the time when the late W. H. Badger established the store at the point where the channels of Hillsboro canal and North New river canal join at the south end of Lake Okeechobee.

How long ago that was as measured in events is suggested by the fact that Mr. Badger had moved his store from its original location to the site on the north side of Hillsboro canal where the Badger residence now is before the name Belle Glade was selected for the post office.

from the east coast, where he ran a drapery for H. T. Holloway, who he was only fourteen years old at that time, and he says there was nothing to impress on his mind particularly the details of the day's happenings. His father, H. A. Braddock, is now staying at his son's house in Belle Glade but the reporter did not get to see him.

Mrs. Badger, one of the oldest settlers, is visiting in Georgia and her home in Belle Glade is closed. There must have been something of a celebration in the Braddock home on Torry Island on that Christmas of 1914, though, for the parents and all of the children were there, and there are nine children. Mrs. C. O. Sams, the oldest of the children, is now living in Miami. Roscoe Lee is the oldest of the boys.

The Braddock home was on the south end of the island; the boats landed there, and everybody had to pass there, coming and going. The Lee family was on the island then; J. D. Lee is the only one of that family who still lives on the island. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Winkle were there at that time and are still there. Other residents on the island at that time were E. W. (Ed) Simmons and his father, who now live in Canal Point, where Ed is a bartender. D. C. Burnett was a homesteader on Torry Island in 1914, but he died in the 1918 influenza epidemic. Mr. Burnett was the uncle of Phil Y. Cason, who now lives at Indian town. The Burnetts and Casons were the first settlers on Miami canal.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. J. B. Cox at the Canal Point teachers. All young men are urged to be present and bring all new members possible.

PAHOKEE SCOUTS
Boy Scouts of America, troop 23 of Pahokee, held its weekly meeting Tuesday, December 13. The meeting opened with the Scout oath. The election of officers for the coming year was held; the results were as follows:

Senior patrol leader, Valpeau Denton; scribe, Bill Rogers; treasurer, Kenny Mock; news reporter, James Stapler; bugler, Valpeau Denton; mascot, Billy Stuckey.

The patrol leaders and assistants are: The Lion patrol, Arthur Spooner, J. B. Stapler; the Flying Eagle, James Stapler, Charles Cupburt.

Rattlesnake, Junior McKinstry, Arthur Larrimore. Alligator, Bill Rogers, Earl Sapp.

A hike was planned for December 23 to St. Lucie canal, if the wood that is to be cut is finished by then. Wilbur Maxwell was put in charge of the hike.

The lawn mowing was assigned to the Lion patrol. Then the scouts had to leave the meeting in charge of junior Assistant Scoutmaster Joe Helms.

The meeting closed with the report of good turns.

Protecting Holland From Sea

The Netherlands, with 38 per cent of its land below sea level, is the only country today that has to protect itself from the ocean with dikes, which must be kept in repair by crews working day and night. One great dike, at Westkapelle, requires such expensive maintenance that it has so far cost more than if it had been made originally of solid silver. —Collier's Weekly.

PRINCE THEATRE

PARK AVENUE AND BOWERY

MEET, MINGLE AT "GARDEN"

"A cross section of the life of New York."

That's the description of Madison Square Garden, Manhattan's famed center of political, social and athletic life, offered by Thomas Burris, author of the movie, "Madison Square Garden," a drama set against the kaleidoscopic background of the institution, which comes to the Prince Theatre Saturday.

"The Garden," explains Burris, "is an informal meeting place for the many. Wall Street, Park Avenue, the police, the theatre, the literary, are all represented there." Burris, in developing his story, took into account this fact, and used it as the basis of the development of the one-location type such as "Grand Hotel" and "Union Depot." A group of persons from entirely different backgrounds glide briefly into the action, and then out again, their lives changed by the events in which they have participated.

The cast of the picture includes Jack Oakie, Thomas Meighan, Marian Nixon, Warren Hymer, William Collier, Jr., William Boyd and Zasu Pitts. A group of noted sports writers, including Damon Runyon, Jack Lait, Grantland Rice, Ed. W. Smith, Westbrook Pegler and Paul Gallico, and a group of figures noted in the sports, among them Jack Johnson, Tom Sharkey, Tommy Ryan, Mike Dooley, Billy Papke, Stanislaus Zyzanski, Jack Kearns and Teddy Hayes, also have roles in the production.

TOMORROW CHEVROLET PRESENTS A NEW SIX

Longer • Larger • Faster • Smoother • New in Styling • More Economical • And Featuring Fisher No-Draft Ventilation

TOMORROW will be Chevrolet Day throughout America. And the new car that millions have been watching and waiting for—the latest product of the world's leading builder of automobiles—will go on display: the New Chevrolet Six—at a new scale of low prices. Front, side, rear—inside, outside—everything about this new car is advanced, improved, exciting. Longer wheelbase makes it the biggest automobile in today's low-price field. The latest principle of car design, "Aer-Stream" styling, gives it a totally different, ultra-modern appearance. The new Fisher bodies are larger, wider—faultlessly streamlined—swung lower to the road—and offer the first basic improvement in travel comfort in over ten years: Fisher No-Draft Ventilation. Chevrolet performance in every gear is faster, flashier, more brilliant. The time-proved six-cylinder engine is more powerful as well as more economical. Improved Free Wheeling is combined with a "silent second" Synchro-Mesh gear-shift. Chevrolet engineers have developed a remarkable new invention that wins a complete victory over vibration: The Cushion-Balanced Engine Mounting. And as far as prices are concerned, several models now sell at the lowest figures in Chevrolet history. Chevrolet is able to do all this because Chevrolet has the advantage of being the world's largest builder of cars for 4 out of the past 6 years. Chevrolet builds cars in greater volume—buys materials in greater quantities—does everything on a bigger, more economical scale. Hence, Chevrolet is in a position to provide a better car at a better price than could possibly issue from any other source. The leader can accomplish what others dare not try! GOOD DINNER AT CHRISTMAS TIME MADE HIM STAY

How H. G. Gates of Moore Haven Happened To Get Into Glades

CLIMATE BETTER THAN MEDICINE FOR HEALTH

May Be It Saved His Life When the Negro Porter Broke the Bottles

Thirty-five years ago a physician in Kansas City, Mo., told a patient he had only a few months to live and advised him to go to California to make easy the last days before he left this world to go to heaven. The patient was H. G. Gates, then an employee of the Cudahy Packing Company. Mr. Gates is still alive, well and hearty. His home is at Moore Haven, Kan. Another employee of the company said Florida was a better state to die in than California, and acting on that advice Mr. Gates and his brother started for Fort Myers, Port Myers being selected because it was farther south. To get to Fort Myers the Gates brothers went through Lakeland and they stopped at Arcadia. They got into Arcadia on a December 21, three days before Christmas. The weather was fine that December day—fine in comparison with a Kansas City day, anyway—birds were singing, flowers in bloom and oranges golden on the trees. On Christmas day strawberries were served at dinner at the old Arcadia House.

"This is good enough heaven for me," H. G. said to his brother. "Or near enough to heaven for the time being," said the patient of the Kansas City doctor who had told him to prepare for transition to another world. "I'm going to stay here," he said. And he did, for a while.

When Mr. Gates was leaving Kansas City his doctor had fixed up for him a course of medicine to last for thirty days. As Mr. Gates transferred at Lakeland from one train to another, the porter dropped the handbag with the medicine and the bottles all got broken.

So when Mr. Gates concluded to stay in Arcadia instead of going to heaven in ninety days he didn't take any medicine because he didn't have any. Nothing something to occupy his time he negotiated for a ten-acre orange grove. The owner fixed $2,500 as the price for cash he sold for $1,500, and Mr. Gates moved onto the property, fixed it up and a short time after sold it for $3,000.

When Mr. Gates went back to Kansas City a few years later his doctor was proud to see him. The doctor thought he was due to have a testimonial and Mr. Gates dictated one: "Dear Doctor: I was sick and you gave me some medicine. The bottles got broken and I didn't take the medicine and I recovered from tuberculosis and other ailments."

Mr. Gates had been in the real estate business in Fort Scott, Kan., before he went with the Cudahy Packing Company in Kansas City, and that purchase of an orange grove for $1,500 and its sale for $4,500 put the old fever in him and he was in the real estate business in Arcadia in 1915 when James A. Moore and Clarence St. Busch began the promotion of Moore Haven and started him selling muck lands for the South Florida Muck Company. Later he was Busch, Trustee. Mr. Gates left Moore Haven when the farms company property was sold and now that the trusteeship has been dissolved and the remaining property divided between Busch, White and Coburn, Mr. Gates is again in charge of land on the Calumet lake river and in Diston Island district.

He still thinks that south Florida is pretty near heaven, for here in December the weather is still good, the birds still sing, trees carry their golden fruit, there are strawberries for Christmas and the muck soil tempts the farmer as does no other soil in the world.

When Gates Is Lost

What shall it profit, if you have acquired books and have lost the art of reading; acquired influence and lost the joy of usefulness; acquired power and lost the pleasure of service. He that thus gains his life loses it in the gaining. This is an enigma. Popper II—Lyman Abbott.

Lived Under Bible Laws

In 1928 the New Haven colony (Connecticut) was begun by an English company under John Davenport. It shirked only church members to vote, and for many years had no laws but those of the Bible.

Pagan Indian Altar Latest Gift to Pope

Vatican City—Pope Pius XI has received a pagan altar dedicated with six mummified heads of enemies of the New Guinea Indian tribe that worshipped before it. The altar was included in a collection of sixty objects of pagan secular and religious sculpture presented to his holiness by Father Kirchbaum, missionary in New Guinea for over twenty-six years.

The collection, which will be placed in the Ethnological museum, was given to Father Kirchbaum shortly after the tribe embraced the Catholic religion.

Owl's Peculiar Cry

The burrowing owl, common on the plains of both North and South America, makes its home in the abandoned burrow of a ground squirrel, though if no ready-made home is available it will dig a little cave-like hole in the earth in which to deposit its eggs. One of the curious traits of this little owl is its cry, which some have likened to the clattering of a cuckoo from the foot of an owl.

Celebrates Later

The lad who marries a pretty girl, and a lot of "it," gets all the congratulations on the wedding day, but the wise boy who marries a sweet disposition is the one who can celebrate the wedding anniversary with 100 per cent enthusiasm. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

CONGRESSMEN SEEN AS HARD WORKERS

Banker Tells of Labor Put in by Members of Congress on Mass of Technical Measures

OUTLINING legislative procedure, Robert W. Fleming, President of the National Bankers Association, told the recent convention of the American Bankers Association a description of the duties and problems confronting the law-makers. Mr. Fleming said in part:

"The most important part of organization of the two branches of congress is election of standing committees. There are 24 standing committees in the Senate and 48 in the House. These are the workhorses of Congress and the real work of law making is done in Committee."

"The task of legislating for 114,000,000 people is a tremendous one. Of recent years approximately 20,000 bills are introduced annually in the House. Only a small percentage become law, but they must be weighed in committee, accepted or rejected, passed and either reported out, and then considered on the floor."

"Lawmaking involves about 95% of hard and unglamorous work and about 5% of oratory. Few tasks appear so easy and are so difficult. The enactment of sound and satisfactory legislation. Few individuals in any line of activity work harder or more conscientiously than the members of Congress whose constituents expect undivided attention to every piece of legislation in which they may be interested. From my personal observation, they earnestly and conscientiously endeavor to do all that is possible."

Public Hearings
"When a bill is introduced, referred to committee and printed, the next step, if it is a measure of considerable importance, is to conduct a public hearing. The committee makes an effort to listen to anyone who cares to be heard either for or against a measure, although witnesses are frequently limited as to the number. Members of the Cabinet and other officials of the administrative departments of the Government testify on matters in which they are interested and furnish the committee information in executive session or otherwise."

"Due to pressure of work and the fact that it is impossible for members of Congress to be technical experts on every subject of legislation, the committees are inclined to give consideration to the merits of arguments presented in testimony and the recommendations of the Cabinet and other officials. It is therefore highly desirable, both from the standpoint of Congress as well as those affected by proposed legislation, that the latter have an opportunity to discuss frankly the effects of such legislation."

A Country Editor Looks at Banking

THE editor of the Norwalk, Ohio, Herald takes a somewhat different view of the banking situation from a good many people. His idea is as follows:

"With cents falling and unpaid, real estate does not present a happy picture. Nor does the owner of carefully selected bonds feel any happier, with a bunch of them going wrong. A lot of folks very carefully invested in preferred bond company stocks in the recent companies in the world and have seen them fall to perhaps a tenth of what they paid for them, and no dividends at all. Some folks kept their money in savings accounts in banks, and some banks have closed and left them high and dry. But the situation is worth looking at very carefully."

"On government authority, most banks that closed were really solvent but for trust assets and popular timidity. Gradually the closed banks are coming out from under and deposits in even bad cases will get at least 9 per cent of their savings. That's tough of course; nobody likes to lose half of what they had accumulated and sacrificed and saved. But when you heard and saw the roll of bills for a coffee cup or under a mattress, some 'legitimate' comes along and says, 'your feet tell you to tell me to take it and welcome.'"

"And as for about the great majority of banks that weathered the storm, met all demands and are doing business as usual, carefully and conservatively, but safely? What about the savings banks? They are a full 100 per cent today—and they are the only thing we know of at 100 per cent anywhere. After all it's said and done, a good, well managed bank is still the best place in all the world for money or savings. Right now in Ohio the banks pay the taxes on all savings and pay their depositors not interest on their savings. We can think just now, of many other investments that are a tenth as safe as a savings account in a solid bank. Why, even a savings account in a closed bank is actually worth more today than most stocks."

ALL IN WHITE IS CHRISTMAS PLAN

GIVE AS WELL AS RECEIVE IS PROGRAM AT SOUTH BAY CELEBRATION

SOUTH BAY, Dec. 14.—Dr. Carl Herman of West Palm Beach, on Friday night, December 14, at the auditorium, presented the problem of the Adolescent Age at the meeting of the South Bay Parent-Teachers Association Monday afternoon. Most of the regular business session was taken up in the discussion of plans for the Christmas week.

The school children's program will be given Wednesday, December 21, at the auditorium, starting at 7:30. A joint committee from the Parent-Teachers Association and the Community and Baptist Sunday schools have made arrangements to give a treat to every school and pre-school child in the community present at the entertainment.

On Friday night, December 23, under the auspices of the P.-T. A.

and the two Sunday schools, the entire community will hold a White Christmas service at the auditorium at 7:30 sharp, all decorations in white. There will be a short program of carols, sacred music and readings suitable to the occasion.

During three interludes in the program those present will march past the cross and lay their gifts for the Christ child at the foot of the cross. It is thought that most of the younger ones will bring toys while the older ones will bring food which may be used to fill the baskets for those who otherwise would have no Christmas. Forty-two baskets are needed and the committee especially requests gifts of chicken, potatoes, beans or canned tomatoes, corn, celery and cranberries.

Mrs. Rasmussen made the monthly report of the noon lunches, reporting 326 lunches served at a cost of $4.13 during the month. On the day preceding Thanksgiving a chicken dinner was served to the children. On next Thursday Mrs. Rasmussen will serve a fried chicken Christmas dinner. She called for the donation of one fryer for the occasion, one already having been made. Attention was called to the donation of a generous supply of towels and linen made by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Hatch of West Palm Beach to the use of the Health Center and the corresponding secretary instructed to write a note of thanks to the donors.

In to see the new electric range before you decide on the best gift for her.

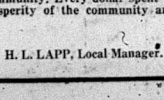

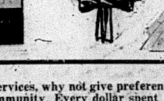

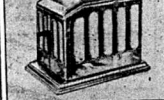

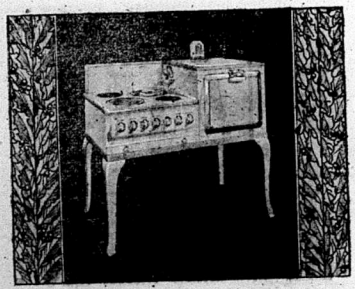

at its beauty. Look at the new low prices. Look into the low cost of operation.

for that hint, "I'd love a new electric range."

If you are still doubtful, look at the range she now has. Does it have an automatic temperature control to eliminate most oven failures? Is the oven insulated to keep the heat where it belongs? Has it a time control that starts and stops automatically when she is miles away? Is it a flameless range that keeps the air pure and the kitchen walls and curtains clean?

If you can answer "YES" to these questions, buy her something else. If not, come to our display rooms or go to your favorite electric dealer and select the range to make her happy... the automatic electric.

ELECTRICITY YOUR CHEAPEST SERVANT

When in the market for electrical appliances, merchandise or professional services, why not give preference to local enterprises? They pay local taxes, give employment, and build the community. SOUTH BAY

Maurice Moore brought two coconut palm trees from the coast to the P.T.A. and they have been set on the Health Center grounds.

Plans were perfected for a joint meeting of the fathers, mothers and teachers the second Thursday evening of January in the new auditorium, at which time a program will be presented under the direction of Mrs. A. Daane.

Mrs. Wedgworth announced her list of confidantes had been prepared as follows:

Membership: Mrs. H. E. Jones, chairman; Mrs. J. L. McLendon, Mrs. G. McLendon, Mrs. J. F. Sheldon; program, Mrs. A. Daane; hostess, Mrs. G. O. Thompson; standing committee, Miss Elizabeth Thompson; finance, Mrs. H. C. Wilson; health, Mrs. A. D. Dixon; lunch committee, Mrs. G. E. Tedder and Mrs. W. C. Lord; carnival, Mrs. H. C. Wilson, Mrs. J. L. McLendon and Miss Hollis Henderson; playground, Prof. H. C. Wilson; Mrs. R. W. Kilder and P. N. Sullivan; flower, Mrs. R. E. Harris, Mrs. E. E. Jones, Mrs. Lou Betzner.

For the beautification of the school grounds were discussed by Prof. Wilson, after which he introduced the new and old teachers to the mothers present while the count was taken for the attendance prize. Miss Cady won the dollar bill. The meeting then adjourned for a short social period.

The members of the Women's Missionary Union of the Baptist church observed the annual week of prayer by two services.

The first service on Wednesday evening followed the rendering of a program of songs, playlets and talks on foreign missions.

That evening service was followed by a playlet and talk on W. M. S. beginning at 10:30 a. m. Thursday at the church, Mrs. Maude Hartline was in charge of the program.

Offerings for the "missionary work" were taken at both meetings with a generous response in each case.

At noon a regular banquet was served by the committee in charge, Mrs. Elizabeth Lockmiller, Mrs. W. H. Hawke and Mrs. M. C. Harris. A large table was laid out for the entire society and guests.

The decorations were all in harmony with the occasion, the tables were covered with white cloths, the place cards were decorated with palm fronds and flowers, and the tables having as a centerpiece a huge Christmas tree. The tables were decorated with the Yuletide colors and the place cards were hand-painted postcards on white cards, the words of Mrs. F. W. Muttcher. The menu consisted of meat loaf, mashed potatoes, brown gravy, baked beans, Boston brown bread, hot rolls, butter, relish and several kinds of vegetable and fruit salads. The dessert course was apple pie, cheese and coffee.

P.T.A. PROGRAM

The Belle Glade Parent-Teacher Association met at the school house Thursday afternoon, Mrs. H. H. Wedgworth, president, in charge of the business session. An interesting Christmas program was given by Miss Elizabeth Thompson, pupil of the first and second grades.

Plans were perfected for a joint meeting of the fathers, mothers and teachers the second Thursday evening of January in the new auditorium, at which time a program will be presented under the direction of Mrs. A. Daane.

Mrs. Wedgworth announced her list of confidantes had been prepared as follows:

Membership: Mrs. H. E. Jones, chairman; Mrs. J. L. McLendon, Mrs. G. McLendon, Mrs. J. F. Sheldon; program, Mrs. A. Daane; hostess, Mrs. G. O. Thompson; standing committee, Miss Elizabeth Thompson; finance, Mrs. H. C. Wilson; health, Mrs. A. D. Dixon; lunch committee, Mrs. G. E. Tedder and Mrs. W. C. Lord; carnival, Mrs. H. C. Wilson, Mrs. J. L. McLendon and Miss Hollis Henderson; playground, Prof. H. C. Wilson; Mrs. R. W. Kilder and P. N. Sullivan; flower, Mrs. R. E. Harris, Mrs. E. E. Jones, Mrs. Lou Betzner.

For the beautification of the school grounds were discussed by Prof. Wilson, after which he introduced the new and old teachers to the mothers present while the count was taken for the attendance prize. Miss Cady won the dollar bill. The meeting then adjourned for a short social period.

The members of the Women's Missionary Union of the Baptist church observed the annual week of prayer by two services.

The first service on Wednesday evening followed the rendering of a program of songs, playlets and talks on foreign missions.

That evening service was followed by a playlet and talk on W. M. S. beginning at 10:30 a. m. Thursday at the church, Mrs. Maude Hartline was in charge of the program.

Offerings for the "missionary work" were taken at both meetings with a generous response in each case.

At noon a regular banquet was served by the committee in charge, Mrs. Elizabeth Lockmiller, Mrs. W. H. Hawke and Mrs. M. C. Harris. A large table was laid out for the entire society and guests.

ROAD REBUFFICATION

Edward Olson, on Bacon Point road, has rows of petunias on the line of his property and on both sides of the walk from the road to his dwelling house. There have never been so many flowers on the eastern side of the lake, and it's too bad that the display is not on a main-traveled road. Mr. Olson's home is the old T. Bell place.
